Start with your contact information at the top, including your name, address, phone number, and email. Follow this with the date and the recipient's details—typically, the hiring manager's name, title, hospital name, and address.

Example:

Address the letter with a professional salutation, such as "Dear Mr./Ms. [Last Name]," or "Dear Hiring Committee," if the specific name isn't available.

- Introduction: Capturing Attention

Your opening paragraph should introduce yourself and specify the position you're applying for. Mention how you learned about the vacancy, especially if through a referral or a trusted source, as this adds credibility.

Example:

"I am writing to express my interest in the Registered Nurse position at City Hospital, as advertised on your careers portal. With over five years of experience in acute care settings and a deep commitment to patient-centered service, I am eager to contribute to your team's ongoing excellence."

- Knowledge of the hospital: Show that you've researched the institution and explain why you want to work there.

Highlighting Skills and Experience

Sample points to include:

- Clinical proficiency in specific areas (e.g., emergency care, pediatrics)
- Familiarity with hospital electronic health record (EHR) systems
- Experience collaborating with multidisciplinary teams
- Ability to handle stressful situations with professionalism

Showcasing Achievements

Use specific examples to illustrate your successes.
